Conference with Signor Crispi That Resulted in Cementing the Dreibund.

King Humbert Firm in His Insistence that Austria's Emperor Must Visit Reme-Fatherland Reforms-Dr. Koch's Discovery ..

[Copyright, 1890, by the New York Associated Press.] BERLIN, Nov. 8 .- Chancellor Von Caprivi, who has been visiting Milan, this morning received a deputation of the German residents of that city who waited upon him to present an address. In reply to the address, which was presented by the German consul, the Chancellor spoke in terms of unofficial frankness of the objects and results of his meeting with the Italian Prime Minister. He congratulated his visitors upon living in a beautiful country which was the center of the art interest and which was under a government that was linked with that of Germany by a policy of peace. His interviews with Signor Crispi, he said, had cemented and perfected the entente of the Dreibund. The reports that he would meet Count Kalnoky on the homeward journey to confer with him on the position and attitude of Italy, were untrue. There was no necessity for his meeting Count Kalnoky, as the Austrian Prime Minister was already cognizant of the aims of the conference. He could give them assurance that there had never been such a period of calm international politics as the present. He had no anxiety as to the immediate future, and was confident that peace would be maintained for a long time to come. The Chancellor did not go to-the length of disclosing the issue of the discussion of Signor Cripsi's demand that the Emperor of Austria return King Humbert's visit to Rome. The relations between the Italian court and government and Austria have been further strained by advices from Count Nigia, the Italian embassador at Vienna, that Cardinal Galimberti, the papal nuncio, has been operating upon Emperor Francis Joseph, through the Empress and Archduke, to break the connection with Italy The Riforms of Rome contrived to get hold of dispatches from Cardinal Galimberti to the Pope reporting progress in the diplomacy tending to isolate the Italian government. The authenticity of the dispatches as pubhished has not been denied. Prime Minister Crispi has been for a long time urging that the Emperor to King Humbert, of which the Chancellor was the bearer, alluded to the Chancellor's service in executing Germany's foreign policy, and said the Emperor agreed with General Caprivi and Signor Crispi arrived at Monzea at 6 o'clock this evening to attend the dinner in honor of the German Chancellor. They were received at the station by the master of ceremonies. Both wore plain evening dress, without decorations, as the dinner at the chateau was to be a private affair. King Humbert welcomed the two Ministers in the royal saloon, and after conversing with General Von Caprivi for some time, handed the Chance llor the order of the Annunciation. Signor Crispi goes to Palermo to-morrow.

The reports that the Chancellor mooted combined reprisals against the United States because of the McKinley bill are unfounded. They emanate from Vienna. The Austrian papers are still hankering after retaliation, although the negotiations here for a commercial coaliation resulted in utter failure. Italy is the least affected by the bill of any European state. She would not risk offending America to satisfy a doubtful ally.

PROPOSED LEGISLATION.

The Chancellor will return by way of St. Gothard in time to prepare for the opening of the Landtag on Wednesday. Several reforms that are certain to be promised in the speech from the throne will be seriously opposed. A reduction in the tariffs on wheat and rye and a reform in the the old feudal rights will be fiercely contested by the old Conservatives. The Emperor, according to the belief in the ministerial circle, is determined to make no concessions. If the lower house refuses to accept the projected reforms as proposed the government will dissolve without delay. The Heligoland bill for the Landtag does not conceal that the island is to be used for war purposes. It declares that the island is valuable as an outpost for at-tack and defense, and will be of special value in time of war. It must be strongly fortified against a hostile coup de main, The bill does not detail the extent of the proposed defensive work nor its cost.

The Reichstag will meet on Nov. 27. The commission on labor laws is expediting its work, in order to be able to report as soon as the house meets. The Emperor keeps in touch with the members. He is gratified with the progress of the commission. The Reichsanzeiger announces that a trademark protection bill will be introduced in the Landtag. It will be modeled upon the English trade-marks bill. The Foreign Office estimates for 1891-92 comprise a vote of 202,300 marks for the colonies in Southwest Africa, chiefly to assist and establish German farmers; 3,500,000 marks for Eastern Africa, and 200,000 marks toward exploring Central Africa.

Dr. Stæcker has not been daunted by his dismissal from the court chaplaincy. He is preparing for a wider and more intense anti-Semitic campaign. He retains his seat in the Reichstag, and seems decided for a hercer agitation in favor of political reaction. The Emperor's selection of Dr. Dry-andes as chief chaplain ad interim is due to an acquaintance formed while his Maj-esty was a student at Bonn, where Dr. Dryandes was pastor of the Evangelical church. Dr. Stæcker still maintains close relations with several members of the imperial household, and is hopeful that he will regain his influence at court.

The Duke of Nassau, Regent of Luxemburg, left the city of Luxemburg this after-noon on his way to Frankfort. The French papers were accurate in their predictions of the speedy Germanizing of Luxemburg. The medical journals refer cautiously to Professor Koch's cure for consumption. The Professor begs his medical friends to refrain from discussing the subject until his investigation shall have given more reliable results. The Pharmaceutische Zeitung confirms the statement that Professor Koch's method is inoculation with a weakened cultivation of tubercular bacilli. The Medizinische Wochenschaft declares that therapeutics of consumption are on the eve of a new and victorious epoch. Professor Koch declines to state when he will be able to present a report of his experiments. He says the results are still too limited for sci-

Officers of merchant ships familiar with Cape Horn routes discredit the reports of the loss of Capt. John Orth (Archduke John of Austria). The Santa Margherita, the vessel which he commanded, is a good ship, and is well manned. She might be safe though she should not be heard of for a mouth longer. The Berlin actress, Milly Stubel, who is the morganatic wife of the Archduke, joined him just before his vessel sailed for Buenos Ayres.

SHIP RAILWAY SCHEME.

Plan to Connect the Seaboard with the Upper Lakes-Chicago and Canada Interested.

CHICAGO, Nov. 8 .- An afternoon paper says: Early in the coming session of Congress representatives of a syndicate composed of Chicago, Montreal and London capitalists will present for consideration a gigantic scheme which, according to the present plans, will place Chicago and the Northwest in direct connection with the Atlantic seaboard by means of a ship railroad which is designed to connect the lakes with the St. Lawrence river and the Atlantic ocean. The scheme will likewise be presented to the Canadian Parliament and a subsidy for its construction and maintenance asked of the Dominion government. The inauguration and completion of the scheme involves the expenditureof $12,000.000, according to the estimates furnished representatives of the syndicate, which has its headquarters at Toronto and Montreal. A United States official stationed at Toronto is understood to have just returned from London, and a report comes from Toronto that while in London he acted for the syndicate and secured as-surance from English capitalists of their cordial moral and financial support.

The ship railroad project is the first great step toward uniting the commercial interests of the United States and Canada. is said to have been originated by promi-nent Canadian business men and capitalists who have always advocated a union of the commercial interests of the two countries. Erastus Wimau is represented as being one of the leading movers in the scheme and is listed for a pretty big slice of the stock. Three routes have been considered, either one of which would reduce by at least four hundred miles the distance beween Chicago and the Atlantic ocean Liverpool. The construction of the ship railroad, it has been demonstrated to the satisfaction of the syndicate, would make the time between Chicago and Liverpool for a fast steamer only two days longer than from New York to Liverpool So quietly have the plans been matured that the first intimation of the project reaches Chicago from Toronto with the statement that a franchise for the operation of the syndicate on Canadian ground was secured from the Dominion Parliament in such shape as to escape notice. It is also stated that the three routes under consideration have already been surveyed, and one of them favored by a majority of the promoters of the enterprise. As near as can be learned the most favored route is to connect the Georgian bay with Lake Ontario by means of the railway, which is to be sixty-six miles long. The direct course is through lakes Michigan, Superior and Huron, through the bay to Lake Ontario, and thence to the St. Lawrence. The franchise obtained from the Dominion Parliament provides for a canal, but is worded so that it can be used to construct and maintain a ship railroad instead The canal, it is estimated, would cost over $30,000,000, while the ship railway does not call for the expenditure of more than

General Weather Conditions.

FRIDAY, NOV. 8, 7 P. M. PRESSURE-The high area last night west of the Mississippi has moved rapidly eastward and extends along the Atlantic coast to-night. The low area last night west of the Rocky mountains moved rapidly eastward with its front along the Mississippi and its center from northern Texas to western Iowa; another low is in the extreme northwest; west of the Rocky mountains the barometers are rising and a high area is approaching.

TEMPERATURE-In front of the low area along the Mississippi valley and northward to the lakes, the temperature rose very rapidly to-day. In the rear of the low area low temperature continued. Twenty degrees and below is reported from Nebraska and South Dakota northeastward over northern Minnesota; 40° and below from Itah, New Mexico, northern Kansas, Iowa, Michigan and the lower lakes northward: 60° and above from Indian Territory, Missouri, southern Illinois and Kentucky southward: 70° and above from northern Texas, Arkansas and Mississippi south-

The First Big Snow-Storm,

St. Paul, Minn., Nov. 8 .- A snow-storm set in this afternoon in the south part of this State, and has kept up since, from three to five inches having fallen in different localities. The snow extends over into Dakota, and will probably be quite heavy before morning. A Yankton correspondent telegraphs that a heavy snowstorm began this morning. Several inches have already fallen, and old settlers and Indians say that winter has set in, and the ground will be under snow from now until spring. Colder weather is also expected by them. A high wind accompanied the snow at Rochester, Minn., and it bids fair to last all night. Lakefield, Albert Lea, St. James and Willmar all report heavy snow, with prospects of its lasting some time. Some light flurries of snow have been reported before this season, but this is really the first snow-storm throughout southern Minnesota and South Dakota. It is too early to hear from any delays on the railroads, and none are likely, for the Northern Pacific and Great Northern have full snowplow forces, which are kept busy at work all the winter, and the track is always comparatively clear of snow. WEST POINT ACADEMY.

Its Work and Needs Explained by Superintendent Wilson-Dangerous Practice Guns. WASHINGTON, Nov. 8 .- Col. John M. Wilson, superintendent of West Point Military Academy, has submitted to the War Department his annual report. He says that there were 294 cadets at the academy Sept. 1, 1889. Since that date the loss has been eight by resignation, twenty-two by discharge, two by death and lifty-four by graduation. The gain has been eighty-one, admitted as new cadets, making a total of 289, four of whom were admitted Sept. 1, 1890. The number includes one cadet from Switzerland and one from Central America. Colonel Wilson makes a point of the disadvantage under which the candidates who enter in September are placed from the lack of drill and instruction which their more fortunate classmates have acquired during the summer encampments. Of the fifty-six candidates who presented themselves Aug. 28, 1889, only sixteen were ad-mitted and only six of these remained in the class after the June examinations. Colonel Wilson attributes this greatly to the fact they did not get an even start with their class. He earnestly urges that except under extraordinary circumstances no further September appointments be made, and that the June candidates be notified a sufficient time in advance of reporting to permit them to prepare for the examinations. He also suggests that candidates report for physical examination to the nearest medical officer of the army immediately upon appointment, so that in the event of physical disqualification their appointments could be at once revoked and they thus spared further expense and mortification. The condition of the corps of cadets as regards drill, discipline and instruction has been excellent. In the first three classes, numbering 184 men, but one cadet failed to pass the June examination, while seventeen were pronounced deficient in the fourth class, ten were recommended to be turned back, and only seven were dis-charged. During the year the health of the command was less favorable than usual, and upon expert examination it was found necessary to recommend extensive improvements in the sewerage and plumb-

In view of the limited period allowed for field-artillery drill, it is urgently recommended that another battery of new 32-10-inch guns be supplied to the academy. The sea-coast and siege batteries are also re-ported to be in bad condition, and three guns burst during the year, fortunately without serious results. Those supplied in their places are old guns, used during the rebellion, and the superintendent says it the lives of the cadets by practicing with these obsolete pieces, and he recommends that new five-inch breech-loading steel guns be furnished. He says, also, that the battery instruction should be placed at once upon an independent footing, and that fifty horses and thirty artillerymen should be furnished. The light at present supplied to the academy is said to be of inferior quality, and the superintendent submits estimates for a complete electric-light plant to cost $69,000.

MINOR MATTERS.

A Practice of Employing Aliens Against Which There Is No Apparent Redress. WASHINGTON, Nov. 8 .- The question has again been presented to the Treasury Department as to whether the practice of employing aliens from Canada at Norfolk, Va., in handling cotton for export, is not in violation of the alien contract labor law. The agent reports that while these men undoubtedly go to Norfolk with an understanding that they will be given work it is almost impossible to obtain proof to that effect. It is said at the Treasury Depart-ment that the law does not apply to foeigners who come to this country voluntarily in search of work, but only to such as are sent for, or who come under a contract express or implied. The great difficulty in the present instance is to prove the existence of any sort of a contract or agreement. There are at present over twenty foreigners en-gaged at Norfolk in handling cotton for English houses, who are said to be so employed in violation of the law. Difficulties of Census-Taking in Alaska. WASHINGTON, Nov. 8 .- Superintendent Porter says: The enumeration of Alaska is nearly completed, but the returns have been received only in part, and those from several interior districts cannot be obtained until next spring. The journey of Mr. Petroff, who had charge of the work in Alaska, foots up about 12,000 miles, and the distances which had to be traveled by his assistants would probably be four or five times greater. The superficial area of territory is estimated at 570,000 square miles. Mr. Petroff has written a letter to Mr. Porter, which is more like an entertaining story of an adventurous explorer in a country where he was often obliged to depend upon the waters and woods for his food, and for shelter upon his own devices, than it is like an official report of a man bent apon statistics of population, manufactures or farm mortgages.

Can Now Wear Badges. WASHINGTON, Nov. 8,-In compliance with the joint resolution of Congress approved Sept. 25, 1890, granting permission to officers and enlisted men of the army and navy to wear the badges adopted by military societies of men who served in the wa of the revolution, the war of 1812, the Mexican war and the war of the rebellion, the Secretary of the Navy to-day issued an or-der modifying the regulations of the navy in accordance with the act. The resolution authorizes these badges to be worn upon all occasions of ceremony. General Notes. WASHINGTON, Nov. 8 .- The President has appointed Philip R. Alger to be professor of mathematics in the navy, with the relative rank of hentenant, from Nov. 1, 1890, and Edward K. Rawson, to be the same, from Gossip About Minister Lincoln. CHICAGO, Nov. 8.—The Evening News says: Robt. T. Lincoln, minister to the court of St. James, has returned to the United States and will be in Chicago next week. It is said that before he returns to England he will tender his resignation as minister to the Court of St. James. The position held by Mr. Lincoln is an expensive one, and the necessary expenditures are in excess of the salary received. Mr. Lincoln has been obliged to return the social attentions extended to him, and this has been a heavy drain upon his finances. Although a member of a thriving law firm, Mr. Lincoln is not a wealthy man, and could not stand such inroads upon his indrs. Lincoln have had a surfeit of court life. The death of their young son hastened their determination to return home to Chicago, Mr. Lincoln's law partners, Isham and Beale, say that they know noth ing about Mr. Lincoln's intentions.

Will Delve in the Ruins of Delphi. NEW YORK, Nov. 8 .- For the past two years the Archæological Institute of America has been contemplating the purchase of the 350,000 acres of land in Greece upon which the little village of Kastri is built. The ruins of Delphi are here, and to make extensive explorations among them would be the object of the purchase. The Greek government has given the institution the irst opportunity of securing the land. At the annual meeting of the New York Society of Archæological Institute this afternoon, Williom R. Ware, professor of arhitecture of mines, announced that the Boston Chapter had subscribed $34,000; Chicago Chapter $10,000 and the New York Chapter, $16,000. It is thought the remainder of the $80,000, the price of the land, will not be hard to raise. The institute has been given until the 18th of this mouth to lose the bargain. The Greek government has made many offers for the land.

Canned Meats Advanced a Fraction. CHICAGO, Nov. 8 .- The Chicago packers f canned meats held an important meeting this afternoon. All the large packers were represented, the object being to consider some action to be taken in view of the increased duties on tin. The meeting was also for the purpose of discussing the possibility of mevice the stockyards and plants of the various packing-houses. It was decided to advance canned meats 14 cent a pound, such advance being declared necessary to cover the additional cost of the tin under the new tariff schedule. After the meeting P. D. Armour, in an interview, confirmed the report that the yards would be removed. It has been shown, he said, to be feasible to establish at a profit new and greatly improved yards and packing-houses with better facilities for handling stock and at less cost. The present yards, he added, will be valuable for other purposes.

She left the baby and dog in front of the house. On her return she discovered that the dog had attacked the child and had literally eaten off its head. The mother is reported to be a raving maniac.

Why the Cadets Will Not Dance. ANNAPOLIS, Md., Nov. 8 .- There will be no cadet hops at the United States Naval Academy this winter. The discontinuance of the cadet hops came about by the commandant, Commander Glass, insisting on the appointment of a hop committee according to their military standing. The cadets objected to this, claiming that those who stood highest in their respective classes did not take as much interest in social affairs, as they spend most of their time in studying.

DEADLY FIGHT IN MENTUCKY.

Election-Day Affray in Which Three Prominent Citizens of Estill County Lost Their Lives.

LEXINGTON, Ky., Nov. 8.-The terrible election-day duel in Estill county, of which only meager mention was made in the press dispatches of Wednesday, turns out to have been one of the most desperate encounters ever witnessed in Kentucky. Irvine, the county-seat of Estill county, is almost cut off from the rest of the world, having only a stage connection with Richmond, and details of the awful tragedy have been slow in reaching the newspapers. The men engaged in the affair were Dr. P. Lilly, a promiment young physician of the town, son of Judge H. Clay Lilly, on one side, and John Wilson, commissioner of common schools in Estill county, on the other side. Lilly was a Republican and Wilson a Democrat. Lilly brought a negro to the polls to vote, when Wilson challenged his right to cast a ballot. The judges coincided with Wilson, and the negro was rejected This angered Lilly and hot words ensued between him and Wilson, resulting in the drawing of pistols by both men. Lilly got his weapon out readily, while Wilson's hung in his hip-pocket and was accidentally discharged. In the meantime he received two balls from his antagonist, both lodging near the heart. The wounds, however, were not immediately fatal, and the dreadful combat continued. Wilson got his weapon free and fired two shots, one of which struck Lilly near the heart. About this time Wilson's brother inter fered and succeeded in wresting Lilly's weapon from his hands. Nothing daunted and almost in the throes of death he drew his knife and made several fatal stabs in his enemy's body. Both fell to the ground, but the terrible duel was not over. With his last ebbing strength Wilson raised up and fired the last load in his pistol at Grant Lilly, brother of Dr. Lilly, who had appeared on the scene, inflicting a fatal wound. Not satisfied with this Wilson crawled over to where his antagonist had fallen and buried the hammer of his pistol in his head. Lally died in a few minutes, while Wilson lingered until the next day

In addition to the men already named having been shot three outside persons received balls, but were not seriously hurt. Altogether the affair was the most desperate that ever occurred in Estill county. A dispatch received here last night says Grant Lilly is also dead. All engaged in the difficulty were prominent men in Estill county. Judge Lilly has gained a nationa reputation by trying the mountain des-peradoes of Kentucky for their offenses.

NOTED "CROOK" ARRESTED.

He Donned the Garb of a Switchman and Committed Many Car Robberies.

CHICAGO, Nov. 8.-It was developed today that the man giving his name as Patrick Ford, who, together with a man named Goodridge, was arrested last Sunday for breaking into the office of the Gutsch Brewing Company, is one of the most notorious and wily "crooks" of his kind in the country, and day he was turned over to Sheriff Noel, of Peoria, who has been wanting him badly for the past three years. Ford, whose right name is William Idom, was arrested at Peoria three years ago for blowing open a safe in the office of the Burlington road at that place. As the officers were taking him to the jail he knocked one of them down, pushed another into a cellarway and made his escape. He was afterwards found in St. Louis switching on one of the roads. The railway officials determined to make sure of their man, and a whole posse of detectives were sent out to capture him. They found Idom on a freight car, which was standing on the river bank. The detectives surrounded the car and ordered him to throw up his hands. Instead he plunged into the Mississippi leaving the officers to empty their guns into the river. A few months ago Idom came to Chicago and entered the employ of the Northwestern road as a switchman. Car robberies became frequent, and J. W. Norton, chief of detectives for the Northwestern company, began to suspect that Idom was in it. He has been watching Idom's movements for the past three weeks; and finally arrested him last Sunday for his connection with the brewery burglary. Chief Norton and the detectives of other roads knew considerable of Idom's history. He operated as a crook in London for years, graduating as a burglar and safeblower from one of the "thieves' schools" of that city. Coming to this country, he began operations in the West under the guise of a switchman. The detectives say that Idom has organized and trained range of thieves at every place they have found him. "THE LOST CAUSE."

It Was About Seventy-Five Feet Long, and Caused Lots of Trouble.

"Yes; I have lost my share of health, strength and happiness, and likewise I have lost the cause of losing it. I am glad of it, for I can now enjoy myself without being bothered by having to give up half of my meals to him. know that it is wrong to be so hard hearted as to deny any one the necessities of life, but in this case any person would rejoice, as I do. I suffered with a tape-worm, and I determined to try the Gun Wa Chinese Herb Remedies to remove it. I had tried several others, but they failed.

MRS. JAMES WELLER, 186 Blake st. "I began and took the remedies according to directions, about 7 o'clock in the morning, and in about three hours the tape-worm came away. It passed off nicely, and I was not sick nor would any one ever have noticed it but for the anxiety I had in the result.

"We examined, and found the head. and it was, we can safely say, from 65 to 75 feet long. We are all thoroughly satisfied, and wish all who suffer with a tape-worm to know how happy we feel over the result. I can now get a good this treatment. It is perfect, and I am satisfied. I cheerfully consent that this statement be published. "MRS. JAMES WELLER,

Your money is promptly returned, if it fails to benefit or cure in all diseases arising from torpid liver or impure blood. No better terms could be asked for. No better remedy can be had. Nothing else that claims to be a blood-purifier is sold in this waybecause nothing else is like the "G. M. D."

So positively certain is it in its curative effects as to warrant its makers in selling it, an they are doing, through druggists, on trial!
